Rideshare Tuesday

Rideshare Tuesday's is a new effort in the Washington metropolitan region to encourage carpooling once a week, every Tuesday! Try it and make it a regular part of your routine.

Ridesharing means two or more persons traveling together in an automobile or van. Ridesharing benefits include fuel cost savings, wear and tear on roads, reducing traffic congestion, HOV lane access, overall expense saving by minimized driving, reduced pollution and greenhouse gas emissions. Ridesharing services enable commuters to find other individuals who share similar commute routes and work hours.

We Want to Hear From You!

Commuter Services is committed to helping you find better ways of commuting to and from work. And what better way is there to do that, than by listening to what you have to say! So please e-mail us at commute@rrregion.org if you have:

- A commuter routine that demonstrates the successful use of carpooling, vanpooling or any other alternative mode of transportation.
- A commuting tip that has made your life a little easier.
- An interesting story about something that happened to you during one of your commutes.
- Story ideas or suggestions for future issues of "On the Road Again..."
- Any other comments or questions.

Looking forward to hearing from you!
